HEALTH OF THE CITY. The Board of Health on Saturday, report cas, s of Cholera Asphyxia. No deaths, On Sunday, one new case.

On Monday, no new case. The Board mention that no case of Cholers has presented itself at the Hospital, during the last 21 hours, ending yesterday at 9 at clock, A. M.

From the Louisville Herald, June 20. We learn that the cholera is fast abating at Lexington—that no new cases had occurred within the last two days. At New Orlens, it is said, that as many as 150 had died in one day; the mortality has been great on been steamboats which have left that city. Amore the deaths we notice that of Captain J. Meade, of this city, on board the floar. As yet this city is healthy, but in order a preserve its health, our city authorities our to pursue with vigour the cleansing of is

POLAND.

The insurrection in some of the Polish prosinces, mentioned a few days ago, has been superessed. It appears that a corps of insurgents have made their appearance on the frontiers of Gallicia, and that much fermentation crists among the people of the province. The John L.
